The soldiers were a sleeve badge which had the shape of a shield and contained the Jumanian national colors and the letters TVo 25X1 7. Draftees of the 1930 class were inducted into the army in November 1950, and draftees of the 1931 class in Earch 1951. In June 1951, the 1929 class that his class was due for discharge in 25X1 25X1 October 1991, Rumanian Labor troops consisted of ethnic Germans from Transylvania, sons of officers who served with the prever demanian Army, and sons of the dispossessed intelligentsia, unlisted personnel of labor units were grey uniforms with enaulets to match, but carried no arms. Officers observed with labor units were the uniforms of the regular army units from which they had been detached. 6. About the end of June and the beginning of July 1951, from 400 to 500 Rumanian troops were stationed in Pulgarus (Y 7/T 63) on the Rumanian-Yugoslav border. The troops arrived aboard one train in late June and by road in early July. All of their vehicles were horse-drawn and no heavy weapons were observed. The troops were grey-brown uniforms with a long tunic, and red service color on the epaulets. Some of the troops were assigned to harvesting work, while others were repeatedly seen marching toward the border. Lany civilian dwellings had been requisitioned in the town. Wthnic German residents, who had been evicted, were evacuated to eastern Rumania. Rumanian troops had also been 25X1 stationed in other villages in the vicinity of Julgarus.
